Hi –

The Senate has hit a new low, even compared to the astonishingly disrespectful Anita Hill hearings 27 years ago. Consider the contrast:

- Back then, the FBI did look into the allegations.
- Now, SJC Chairman Grassley just said “It’s not the FBI’s role to investigate a matter such as this.” Nobody believes that. How stupid does he think we are?

In terms of approval rating, the Senate currently ranks somewhere below cockroaches. Have you ever wondered why? Now you know.

If Republicans somehow ram this nomination through, it will come at a cost. That includes losing the Senate in November, and deserving to lose. Are you sure it’s worth it?

Yours truly,
