Hi –

Brett Kavanaugh must not be confirmed to the Supreme Court.

Let's start with the fact that he's unsure whether the president should be above the law, i.e. immune from criminal as well as civil process while in office. This is insane as a general principle, and super-extra-insane at the moment, given the flagrant criminality of the #fakepresident we have now. In the real world, it's not an open question; it was decided 8-0 back in 1974 (US v. Nixon).

Very temporarily, let's set aside his Cro-Magnon attitudes toward women's rights, gun safety, the EPA, the CFPB, et cetera. His attitude toward monarchical immunity is disqualifying all by itself.

This is a big deal. When you-know-who undermines the ACA, it puts people's lives at risk. When he undermines Justice itself, it puts the survival of the whole nation at risk.

Yours truly,

John L Denker
