Hi –

Today's executive order on immigration rolls back only some of the atrocities, not all.

1. Something along the lines of S.3036 is still needed. It would help if you would introduce or cosponsor something similar in the House.
2. A clean DREAM act is still needed. The Ryan bill is unacceptable. The Goodlatte bill is even worse; around here we call it the "Make America White Again" bill.
The bipartisan Roybal-Allard/Ros-Lehtinen bill is the simplest and best. It would easily pass both houses. Why not just bring it to a vote? Stop using people as pawns.
3. No wall unless Mexico pays. The campaign promises were explicit and emphatic. Not one red cent of US funding for the wall. Stop using children as hostages.
4. The only way to get at the root cause of the problems is impeachment. Just for practice, you could start by impeaching Jefferson Beauregard Sessions for lying to Congress during his confirmation hearings, and also for immigration policies that defy US and international law.

Yours truly,

John L Denker
