Hi –

- 1) In the recent hearings, Kavanaugh said Roe v Wade was “precedent” and Casey was “precedent upon precedent.” In other words, he said nothing ... because on the Supreme Court he would not be bound by precedent.
- 2) In the only abortion case to come before him in the Circuit Court – the Garza case – he put his thumb on the scale in spectacular fashion.
- 3) Before and after the election, the #fakepresident made it clear that his nominees would be guaranteed to overturn Roe v Wade.

You’re not stupid. Surely you know all this. Kavanaugh is not just outside the mainstream. He’s not just an activist judge. He’s not just an ideologue. He’s a partisan hack, and that’s why he got nominated.

You can’t vote for Kavanaugh and then pretend to be pro-choice. Nobody would believe such a thing. Ever. And that’s just one of many reasons why he’s not fit for the job he already has, much less a promotion.

You can’t vote for Kavanaugh and then pretend you’re opposed to judicial activism, or opposed to politicization of the judiciary. Nobody would believe such a thing. Ever.

You can’t pretend this is the best person for the job. Nobody would believe such a thing. Ever. Surely you can find somebody better.

Yours truly,

John L Denker
