

John Denker
PhD CFII-ME

8913 E Harborage Dr.
Tucson, AZ 85710-6226
520 903 8090 voice or text
520 526 2497 fax
pol@av8n.com

Senator Ben Sasse
136 Russell Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20510

202 224 4224
202 228 0436 fax

Fri, 28 Sept 2018

Hi –

Kavanaugh, in a clumsy attempt to clear himself of old accusations, convicted himself of several new ones. He showed himself unfit to be a small-town justice of the peace, let alone an appeals court judge, much less a supreme court justice.

- On Thursday he lied about boofing, lied about ralphing, lied about Renate alumnus status, and lied about the devil's triangle. Previously he lied about stolen emails and other things.

Let us set aside the question of whether he was a sexual predator 36 years ago. We can see that even today, he is sorely lacking in personal integrity.

- There is no doubt that on Thursday he was belligerent, bitter, and lacking in impulse control. No court in the land would allow a witness to behave that way.

Let us set aside the question of whether he was a pugnacious drunk 36 years ago. We can see that even today, even when he is sober, he is sorely lacking in judicial temperament.

- On Thursday he said he was the victim of “pent-up anger about President Trump and the 2016 election” and “revenge on behalf of the Clintons.” Really? When Christine Blasey Ford told her therapist about him in 2012, it was because of the 2016 elections? That's a weird way to seek revenge.

Let's set aside the question of whether he was a partisan hack 15 years ago, and the fact that he lies reflexively – and stupidly. We can see that even now, he selfishly injects partisanship into issues where it does not belong. Politicization of the judiciary is bad for America.

- As for the old accusations, an FBI investigation would be nice, but we already know that she's credible and he's not.

Bottom line: He's unfit to serve, for multiple reasons.

Yours truly,

John L Denker